The following Cookie Policy outlines how we utilize cookies and similar tracking technologies on our Website, in accordance with relevant data protection regulations.

WHAT ARE COOKIES?

When you visit the Website, our system automatically collects information about your visit, such as your browser, IP address. This collection may be done in conjunction with our platform providers and partners. We may receive from them general demographic or usage data of our Website visitors. We do not use automatically collected information to identify you personally without receiving additional consent.

To collect the information in question We use cookies and similar tracking tools. Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer or equipment when you visit our web pages. Some of the cookies are essential for the Website to operate; others improve your Website experience and help us deliver a better service.

TYPES OF COOKIES UTILIZED

We use the following types of cookies on our Website for different purposes:

Required cookies: enable the navigation and basic functionality of the Website.

Purpose: Session management and user authentication.

Functional cookies: allow Us to analyse your website usage and your selections on the website (e.g. your session key, language, or region), so we can save these settings and offer you a more personalised experience.

Purpose: Website analytics and improvement of user experience.

Advertising cookies: allow us to gauge how effective our content marketing is. These cookies are provided by our partners to track Website visits and new player registrations from advertising. We do not share your personal information (such as name or email) to affiliated partners except for Website visit data collected directly by such Advertising Cookies. However your Website visit data may be linked with other personal information collected through other sources by the providers. The latter external data processing is governed by the privacy notices and policies of these third-party providers.

Purpose: Marketing campaign tracking and performance measurement.

Google Analytics: This cookie is employed to gather data on visitor interactions with the Website, enabling Us to assess and enhance site quality through the analysis of visitor behavior. The information collected is used to generate reports and aid in the improvement of our services. Specifically, the cookie gathers data on the number of visitors to the Website, their origin, the pages they view, and helps identify unique visitors to our sites. Google Analytics assigns a unique ID to this cookie, ensuring its validity and accessibility as an additional security measure.

Purpose: Website analytics.

In addition to the aforementioned, we utilize various third-party service providers who also place cookies on this Website to deliver their services to us. These services include, but are not limited to, enhancing your experience by tracking your activity on the Website, assessing the Website's performance, and evaluating the effectiveness of our marketing campaigns.

MANAGING COOKIES

You have various options for managing and controlling your cookie settings. It's important to note that deleting or blocking cookies may impact the functionality of the services.

You can manage cookies through your web browser by:

- Reviewing general information about cookies.
- Viewing stored cookies on your device.
- Deleting cookies individually or all at once.
- Blocking or allowing cookies for all websites or specific ones.
